

EVENTS LEADING TO THE CIVIL WAR

Directions: Use complete sentences when answering the prompts. You need to answer the items in red font.

1820-Missouri Compromise

- In the Compromise, Missouri was admitted as a slave state.
- Maine was admitted as a free state.
- Slavery was prohibited in the area north of 36 ° 30'.

Look at the map. Identify if the areas (1 & 2) are free or allow slavery.

1.

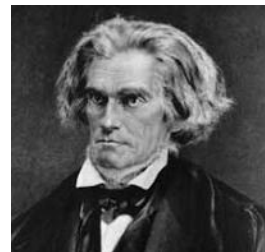

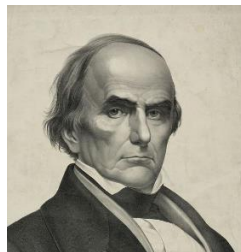

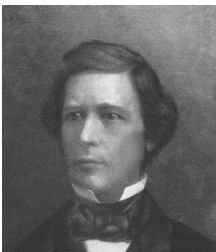

2.

1846- Wilmot Proviso

I, Representative Wilmot, propose to Congress a law that prohibits slavery in any new territories we win from the Mexican-American War!

I, Daniel Webster, a representative from the North think

I, John Calhoun, a Senator from the South think

1850- Compromise of 1850

Show how balance was maintained in the Senate by placing (cut and paste) the following statements on the proper side of the balance scale.

- California was to be admitted as a free state.
- New Mexico and Utah territories would decide for themselves whether or not to allow slavery.
- A strong Fugitive Slave Law was enacted.
- The slave trade in the District of Columbia was abolished.

1.	1.
2.	2.

AGAINST SLAVERY IN THE NEW TERRITORIES COMPROMISE OF 1850 PRO-SLAVERY

1850- Fugitive Slave Act (Part of Compromise of 1850)

Write the perspectives for the groups affected by this congressional act in the space provided. Add your perspective.

Northerners	Free Slaves
Southerners	Your Opinion

Fugitive Slave Law Reactions

1852- Uncle Tom's Cabin

Explain Harriet Beecher Stowe's reasons for writing Uncle Tom's Cabin.

I wrote Uncle Tom's Cabin because

How did the North and South react to her emotional novel? Use evidence to support your claim.

1854- Response to the Kansas-Nebraska Act

Fill in the missing words on the Title of the primary source political cartoon based on what you have learned about Bleeding Kansas. Explain how picture 1 led to pictures 2 and 3.

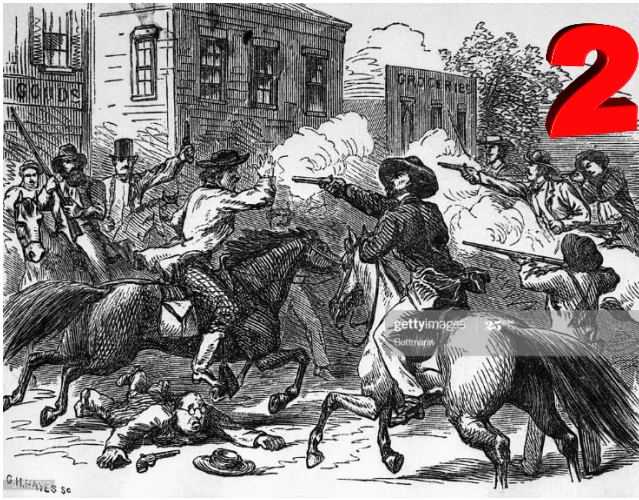

Title: Proslavery Citizens from _____ vote at Kickapoo in _____ Territory in 1855.

Artist: Albert D. Richardson, Beyond the Mississippi

Picture 1 led to pictures 2 and 3 because

Proslavery Missourians vote at Kickapoo, Kansas Territory, in 1855 in this image from Albert D. Richardson's Beyond the Mississippi.

1857- Dred Scott Decision

Pretend you are a Supreme Court judge who rules on the Dred Scott case. What was the reasoning behind your decision? Use an evidence excerpt from the notes/videos/DBQ to support your answer.

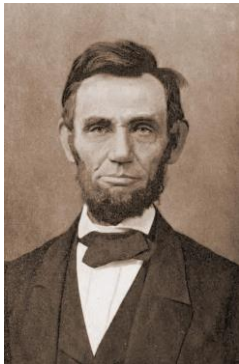

My decision is that

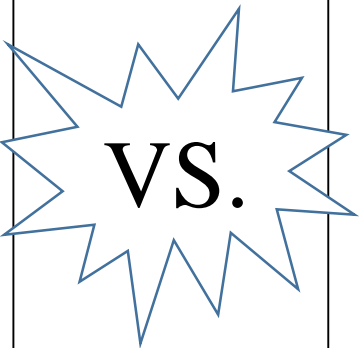

The following excerpt from the notes/videos/DBQ supports my judgement:

1858- The Lincoln-Douglas Debates

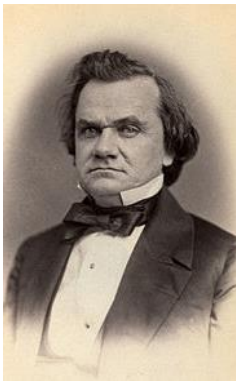

Outline the two opposing viewpoints below.

LINCOLN

DOUGLAS

REFLECTION

Out of these 8 events leading to the Civil War, choose 3 events you think made the Southerners feel they had no choice but to secede from the Union.

EVENTS	REASON(S) WHY YOU CHOSE THIS EVENT
1	1.
2	2.
3	3.